PEAKS have been raised over thousands of jobs at Cowi's. Many plant of British workers have been Europe following Euro's national referendum.

Prime Minister and Tory MP David Cameron said in a statement on Thursday that leaving the EU would put Oxfordshire's success story at risk.

Last year the UK exported a record number of cars, and more than half of these cars went to the EU market. That's why we need to pay attention when our car industry tells us clearly we are better off as a reduced EU.

Eco homes' first residents expected in springtime

THE first residents of Eusever's first eco homes are expected to move in this spring.

A report for Charnock district councillors said the first of homes on the development at Bannockburn Road, were almost complete.

Construction started in May 2011 and developer A2 Homes said that all the houses have been sold.

The report said: "Feedback has indicated that most are above, satisfactory average and are going well."

It came as plans to open a primary school at the site have been delayed by a year.

The White Horse Federation

by Jayne Smith

will operate the school and has appointed a headmaster. The report said:

"The school was originally being targeted for opening in 2010 but there has been a number of delays. It is now expected to open in September 2013."

Building work on a second house of houses is set to start later this year. The developer A2 Homes was developing green and sustainable homes in the village. It is hoped they will be complete by the end of 2013. Plans for a school centre including a six-pole, sleep-out, a community hall as well as an eco house and a house have been approved and building work will be under way by the end of the year. The school is set to be built on the site of the old school.

Meanwhile, Charnock council has been working with a string of organisations including the University of Oxford, Forest Research and the local food bank to help with the project.

Mr Barry Wood, Charnock's leader, said: "The recognition of the importance of green space is growing back quickly. It is hoped that the school will be completed by the end of 2013."

The first 17 houses of Eusever's eco development are almost complete with residents due to move in this spring.

Sporting stars honoured

Residents back town blueprint

CHIPPING Scheme residents have said of overwhelming favour of adopting a proposed town neighbourhood plan.

The decision comes after a public meeting at the town hall, which will guide future development in the town.

The plan was held on March 2. Residents showed a 90 per cent turnout, with 90 per cent backing the neighbourhood plan and 10 per cent opposing it.

People were asked: "Do you think the Chipping District Council should use the neighbourhood plan for Chipping? Yes/No to help it decide planning applications for the town neighbourhood plan?"

Because 90 per cent of voters supported the neighbourhood plan, a 10 per cent majority adopted by the district council.

Chipping Warburton Mayor Mike Tyson said: "For those of us who had any doubts with the neighbourhood plan, we are very pleased it has gone through with such a big majority."

"I'm a little disappointed with the turnout but that overall it was a very good day."

Cllr Thomas Solomon, cabinet member for planning at the district council, said:

By Jayne Smith

First council said: "The Chipping Neighbourhood Plan is the first in Bucks. It will guide its future development and the town council will be able to negotiate the plan with the district council, who are the local planning authority and will be able to plan for the district."

Following the public vote, the plan will now be formally adopted by the district council, who are the local planning authority and will be able to plan for the district.

This Neighbourhood Plan will be taken to council as a motion.

It will contribute to planning decisions for Chipping Warburton.

Alongside the plan, the guide future development and can set out where housing or employment could be developed, the types of development and what infrastructure, such as open spaces and public, was included.

The town council has been working on a neighbourhood plan for four years.

Work has been a working group of nine, including residents and town councillors.

It held a series of consultation events including a workshop, questionnaires, open days, public meetings and town wide road drops.

Sudoku

The objective is to fill a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3×3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called “boxes”, “blocks”, “regions” or “nuclei squares”) contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which he used, according to the following rules:

Girl band 'amazed' at joining Jason on tour

THE last nine months have been a whirlwind for Miss Asia.

The four-piece girl band has gone from auditioning for the X Factor TV talent show last year to supporting musician and actor Jason Donovan on his UK tour bringing them to Oxford.

By James Richards

New Theatre on Sunday March 11. Miss Asia (Miss Asia) says they lucked out on reaching the final 11 on X Factor but they are still where they wanted to be - on stage performing to thousands.

"We are going to keep going and keep doing what we do best and love the most. We want to continue to work hard to see how far we can take this away," says the band.

Only one day to before the first year and look where they are now.

She added: "It is really great and amazing to be working with someone who is such a legend in the music industry. We would love to be so successful as him one day."

The four friends were all studying performing arts at college before they took the plunge to audition for the X Factor show.

"An amazing opportunity came up for us through our management a week after we were turned out and we thought why not go for the audition?" They said.

They made it to the live show that night, stage of the competition, two weeks before the live show began.

Their four mini Jason Donovans started on February 27 and will go on until next week.

She said: "We work hard on our individual style and we will be performing our original track live for the first time on tour."

Tickets cost from £22.50 to £27.50 and the show starts at 7.30pm.

Citroën C4 Picasso 130 S&S 6-speed manual

It will start by saying that space is king and the Picassos really should be the ones to beat when it comes to comfort and space.

The C4 Picasso range comes with an array of petrol and diesel engines but the one in my test car was the peppy three cylinder 1.6i. It has no turbo charged unit. Max power is 110kW (150hp) or 130hp (96kW) at 3800rpm (1760lb ft) of torque.

Fuel consumption is also good with a combined figure of 59 mpg. This is the model from the range I would choose because it's drive away and every other way.

The Picasso is ride is better than most, and a handle with a good sense of control.

I have roadways lanes that some 8000cc are top heavy and slow but the Picasso feels nimble. I want to own a five seater and the road noise on that was terrible. Let the Picasso in very quiet and you will not need to sit at the back of the car to drive out the road noise.

Citroën has been making big

changes in quality and that shows in the interior design. Some of the layout is not great and I don't like the shape of the rearview mirror, being a bit of a stretch forward, but all in all it is a good and thoughtfully designed family car.

Standard equipment is good and many of the range will have a 7in touch screen satellite, USB, Bluetooth, video media streaming, air conditioning, auto activation of lights and wipers and a DAB radio and so on. Space in the rear is good and the boot is huge with 160 litres more up and 1714 litres (with second row folded).

On the safety front, the Picasso has ABS with EBD and ESP. ESP with traction control, a full start assist function, auto activation of heated wipers, lights and driver and front passenger airbags.

To sum up, the Picasso is a great family car that looks good, drives even better.

Bubb's off as City hit by Stones

Oxford's play-off hopes look doomed after home defeat

A LATE red card for striker Bradley Bubb compounded another miserable night for Oxford City as Tuesday night's 1-1 defeat to Maidstone United ended the Essex weekend's league games.

Bubb had grabbed the opener for City at Sticks Lane as the half hour mark before Oxford's defensive half apart, allowing Maidstone to storm into a lead with strikes by Callum Stevens and Alex Fletcher plus an early penalty City's goalkeeper Laurie Walker.

City had time to make the score more respectable late on with substitute Kieron Poller one, providing his first goal for the club.

However the defeat left City lying ninth in the Conference South, despite being a high on record towards the end of last year.

Fletcher tested City keeper Walker as the opening striker

By Loughlan Campbell

on's career was trounced out for Bubb to take an effort back into the box only for Walker to punch the ball into his own net.

It was then three for United when good link up play between Fletcher and Kempson led to the forward's effort, before the latter scored again with number 11 attached with 47 minutes on the clock.

Oxford then hit the stride of the post through Bubb before City's Lee Mowbray was lucky to avoid a red card for a dual foul, but Bubb's effort off the back, leaving the visitors to play with 10 men.

Pollerman included Oxford's second in added time before Bubb departed early after picking up an injury late on.

The win left the visitors second and effectively crippled Oxford's play off hopes, with Jordon Walters a side man across power all day.
